Maundy Thursday

This year we will be taking a new approach to our observance of Maundy Thursday. We will begin with a meal of soup and sandwiches at 6:30 in McGrady Fellowship Hall. From the meal we will move seamlessly into our service which will also take place in the fellowship hall. We will partake in communion and also be 'visited' by those who were closest to Jesus during his ministry: the disciples Peter, James, and Judas, and also Mary the mother of Jesus, Mary Magdalene, and the Unnamed Woman healed by Jesus in Matthew chapter nine. This is an original service being enacted for the first time at Hillsville Christian Church. We hope you will make plans to spend this special evening with us.
