Bazaar a Success

Thanks to everyone who helped in any way, the 2014 Holiday Bazaar was a success. We had more vendors that we have ever had and the crowd of shoppers kept us busy filling their orders for breakfast, lunch, cheese balls, and baked items. It was a festive day with Christmas music and good food to eat. The bazaar itself brought in $1,234.25. We have collected $1,580.00 from cheese ball sales. This is not our profit as we have to figure the expenses, but it is a sizeable amount for the first three days of sales. There are a few cheese balls left in the ridge, if you didn't get any and want some. They can be frozen for your holiday parties and get-togethers. We still have apple butter for sale if you would like some. The ladies say thank you all for your support as this fundraiser will fund many missions the CWF is involved with.
