Education Opportunity

Lexington Theological Seminary is offering an online program of “How to Survive and Thrive as an Elder” on Saturday, February 21st. The cost is $10 per computer logon. The presentation is described as follows: “This practical workshop will give helpful ideas on fulfilling one’s role as an Elder. From preparation to prayer, from the Lord’s Table to the hospital room, from shepherding to servanthood...through stories and scripture this inspiring and entertaining webinar will offer a broad scope and detailed information for Elders in churches large or small.” Please talk to Amanda if you’re interested in participating.

Giving Statements

You have either received your 2014 giving statements before worship on Jan. 18th or you will receive them soon by mail. If you notice any discrepancies or have not received a statement by January 30th, please call the church office and leave a message for Rita Smith.

Souper Bowl

You are invited to the 'Souper Bowl' lunch on Sunday, February 1st in the McGrady Fellowship Hall right after the morning worship service. The CWF will host the event. Several different types of soups and grilled cheese sandwiches will be served along with drinks and a dessert. We will accept donations for the local food pantry. There will also be a display from Church World Service about the upcoming 'Blanket Sundays' in February. We hope all of you will plan to join us for good food and food fellowship.

Happy Birthday
