Correspondence

To My Sweet Church Family,

How can I ever find the words to express my gratitude and love for everything you have done for me and my family during Edd's home going.

Your prayers, cards, and words of encouragement through our long journey with Alzheimer's and COPD gave me strength to go on with this daily struggle.
Edd's Celebration of Life was truly beautiful, thanks to Amanda's sermon; the choir could never have been more awesome, especially when you sang Edd's favorite song "Beulah Land." In my mind's eye I could see his smi le and I think he may have been singing along. He didn't have a very good singing voice here, but I think all of that may have changed when he arrived home.

The food prepared for my family after the service was so appreciated by everyone; they were so impressed by the beauty and the quality of everything. They were very aware of the work that went into pulling off such a wonderful meal.

Many times I have said, "I don't know how folks face death and loss without God"--now I must add "and their church family" to that.

To my church family, Amanda, John, Justin, the choir, and everyone who contributed to this beautiful service, to each of you go my gratitude and love.

Elsie Cole
